It is important to note that this table is not a ranking, but rather a categorisation of brands based on their responses to our letters, and also relating to their viscose policies as found on their company websites. Engagement with NGOs in relation to the Dirty Fashion campaign is reflected in the table - but in order for a brand to be placed in a higher category, this needs to have been meaningful engagement with a clear commitment, on the brand's its Facility Environmental Module

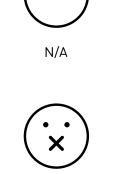

Who	TO	d	hran	ds stand o	a	17 10	SCO	5 2	with NCO in value of the Distriction of		ory, this needs to have been meaning	gful engagement with a clear
AAIIC		u	JULALI	ius stailu t	JII	AT		5C i		rship is not included in this table, as the SAC does not cover chemical management. Its a pers of the SAC to use the Higg Index. vww.changingmarkets.org/portfolio/dirty-fashion/	ffiliated platform, the HIGG Index, do	pes cover this as part of its Fa
BRAND/RETAILER	ENGAGED 2017	ENGAGED 2018	% OF VISCOSE IN SUPPLY CHAIN	POLICY ON VISCOSE	CANOPY STYLE MEMBER	ZDHC SIGNATORY	MANUFACTURING RESTRICTED SUBSTANCES LIST (MRSL)	GREENPEACE DETOX COMMITMENT?	(TRANSPARENCY ABOUT VISCOSE SUPPLIERS		SCORE IN FASHION REVOLUTION'S TRANSPARENCY INDEX 2018
OSOS	\bigcirc	(~)	13%	Has a cellulosic fibre sourcing policy. Has committed to lower environmental impacts of raw materials. Requires that main suppliers of viscose (Lenzing and Birla) complete the Higg's Facility Environmental Module by June 2018 and that this		\otimes	Has a Restricted Substances List (RSL)		Currently able to trace 57% of viscose – to date all can be traced to Aditya Birla Group or Lenzing, located in Austria, China, India and	DISCLOSED IN REPLY 2018 Aditya Birla Group (Thai Rayon Company, PT Indo Bharat Rayon, Birla Jingwei Fibre company, Grasim. Birla Cellulosic, Graseline); Lenzing Austria, Lenzing Nanjing, PT South Pacific).	PUBLIC ON WEBSITE States on its website that it sources from	50% discover fashion online			of fibres sourced are cellulosic.	is verified by an independent third party. Has committed to the Changing Markets Roadmap and plans to make the commitment available online. Has a viscose sourcing policy and is working with industry to improve chemical and		_	that it communicates to suppliers.	Greenpeace Detox 2020	Indonesia.	Less than 5% from: Sateri (Jiangxi, Fujian), Fulida Group, Tangshan Sanyou, Shandong Bohi, Aoyang, Bailu Group, Nanjing, Jilin, Yibin, Shangdong Silver Hawk, Kelheim Fibres, Hubei Golden Ring, Enka, Asahi.	Aditya Birla Group and Lenzing. States on its website that it sources from
C&A)		(v)	of fibres sourced are cellulosic.	environmental practices at cellulosics spinning facilities, and to remediate current challenges. States commitment to the Changing Markets Roadmap on its website. Has publicly committed to the Changing Markets Roadmap and is working with		⊘	Uses ZDHC MRSL	signatory		Aditya Birla Group and Lenzing. Yes, but admits that list shared with us may not cover all of them. Hopes to have a more accurate picture by August 2018:	two viscose producers - Lenzing and Aditya Birla Group.	53%
ESIPRIT		\vee	Around 13% of products are made with viscose (excluding lyocell).	viscose producers to achieve a more sustainable production process. Also has a viscose sourcing policy.	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	H&M disclosed a full list of its factories, including locations and some	Lenzing Group; Aditya Birla Group (including PT Indo Bharat Rayon); Tangshan Sanyou Yuanda Fibre Co. Ltd.; Fulida Co., Ltd; Sateri Co., Ltd; Shanghai Feiyun Tencel Textiles Co., Ltd; Dandong Wuxing Chemical Fibre & Textile Group Co., Ltd; Jiangsu Xinmin Textile Science & Technology Co., Ltd; Suzhou Xinmin.	Discloses tier 1-3 suppliers, but this does not include viscose suppliers.	54%
H&M	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	8% (same as 2017 figure)	Yes. Engaging with viscose suppliers to move towards closed-loop manufacturing system by 2025. In the process of updating its MMC policy, which will be aligned with the Changing Markets Roadmap and will be available after the summer 2018. Also has a viscose sourcing policy.	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	addresses: Lenzing; Aditya Birla Group; Fulida; Tangshan Sanyou; Sateri; Aoyang Technology; Shandong Helon; Xinxiang Bailu; Jiangsu Xiangsheng; Shandong Yamei; Nanjing Chemical Fibre; Jilin Chemical; ENKA GmbH & Co; Kelheim Fibres; Formosa Chemicals & Fibre Corporation	H&M again disclosed an updated full list of its factories, including locations and some addresses: Lenzing; Aditya Birla Group; Fulida; Tangshan Sanyou; Sateri; Aoyang Technology; Shandong Helon; Xinxiang Bailu; Jiangsu Xiangsheng; Shandong Yamei; Nanjing Chemical Fibre; Jilin Chemical; ENKA GmbH & Co.	Lists tier 1-3 suppliers, but this does not include viscose suppliers.	55%
INDITEX	\odot	⊘	9.7% (same as 2017 figure)	Has a cellulosic fibre sourcing policy ('Forest Product Policy'). Forest Product Policy and Annual Report state its commitment to the Changing Markets Roadmap. Plans to make the commitment available online. Engaging with viscose suppliers to raise awareness of the Roadmap, with a view to setting goals to achieve EU BAT limits. Working to grow its use of lyocell and other less damaging alternatives.		\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	Lenzing – Austria; Aditya Birla – India; Fulida – China; Nanjing NCFC – China; Sateri – China; Shandong Helong – China; Shandong Yamei – China; Xinxiang Bailu – China; Jiangsu Xiangsheng – China; Aoyang Technology – China.	Lenzing – Austria; Aditya Birla – India; Tangshan Sanyou Xingda Chemical Fibre - China; Fulida Group – China; Nanjing NCFC – China; Sateri – China; Shandong Helong – China; Shandong Yamei – China; Xinxiang Bailu – China.	Lists tier 1-3 suppliers, but this does not include viscose suppliers.	42%
M&S EST. 1884	\bigcirc	⊘	10% (same as 2017 figure)	Has a cellulosic fibre policy which covers sourcing and expects suppliers to develop and implement closed-loop manufacturing systems by 2023-2025. States commitment to the Changing Markets Roadmap on its website.	\bigcirc	✓	Uses ZDHC MRSL plus additions.	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	83% of viscose products are sourced from fibre producers engaged with Canopy Style (didn't specify which ones).	83% of viscose products are sourced from fibre producers engaged with Canopy Style (does not specify which ones).	Its supplier list mentions Aditya Birla Group, but no other Canopy-approved viscose supplier.	51%
next	\bigcirc	⊘	8% are manmade cellulosics, including Lenzing Tencel® and Lenzing Modal®.	In the process of finalising its Responsible Fibre Policy for Viscose and Modal, based on the requirements of the Changing Markets Roadmap.	\otimes	\otimes	\bigcirc		(×)	Next has mapped 64% of its supply chain and names the following suppliers: Lenzing Group – Austria, China and Indonesia; Aditya Birla Group (Grasim Industries - Nagda (Madhya Pradesh)) – India; Tangshan Sanyou Group (Sanyou Chemical Fiber) – China; Aditya Birla Group (Birla Cellulosic – Kharach) – India; Aditya Birla Group (Graseline Division - Vilayat) – India; Jilin Chemical Fibre – China; Sateri Group (Sateri (Fujian) Fibre Co Ltd) – China; Fulida Group (Fulida (Zhejiang) Holding Co Ltd) – China; Aditya Birla Group (Graseline Division - Harihar) – India; Xianxiang Bailu – China; Jiangsu Xiangsheng – China; Nanjing NCFC – China; Sateri Group (Sateri (Jiujiang) Chemical Fiber Co Ltd) – China; Aoyang Technology (Funing Aoyang) – China; Yibin Grace – China; Aditya Birla Group (Thai Rayon Company) – Thailand.	Provides a list of tier 1 suppliers on its website. Has publicly committed to map out its supply chains back to raw materials suppliers by 2020.	33%
TESCO	\bigcirc	⊘	7-10%	Yes. Man-made cellulosic fibre suppliers in Tesco's supply chain should work towards closed-loop manufacturing by 2023-2025 and follow the details stipulated in the Changing Markets Roadmap (policy will be published in summer 2018). Tesco also has a viscose sourcing policy for own-brand products.		⊘	Uses ZDHC MRSL plus additions.	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	87% of Tesco viscose products are sourced from factories engaged with Canopy Style (didn't specify which ones).	Approximately 80-90% of its viscose is from Lenzing, Aditya Birla Group, Sateri and Tangshan Sanyou.	Publishes a tier 1 supplier list, but raw material suppliers (including viscose) are not included.	31%
adidas	\otimes	\bigcirc	(x)	Names Tencel (which is Lenzing's brand of lyocell) as one of its most commonly-used sustainable materials but does not have viscose-specific policy.	\otimes	\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL plus additions.	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory		··· ×	Provides a list of tier 1-3 suppliers, but this does not cover raw material producers.	58%
ALDI		⊘	3% for Aldi South Group.	Has a waste water and sludge policy, but this seems	\otimes	\otimes	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory		(x)	Publishes tier 1 suppliers on its Aldi- Nord website, but this does not cover raw material producers.	Not included
	(\times)	(v)	Y P	to be focused on wet processing.	\otimes	\otimes	\times		luu ²	···	Lists countries from which the brand sources on its website – but no further	15%
AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS			(x)	Has a wood-based fibre sourcing policy that covers viscose, but this does not cover					(\dot{x})	has not mapped suppliers. Disclosed in a call that the brand works with Lenzing and Aditya Birla Group	Provides a list of factories on its website
UAP	✓)	(v)	said that viscose is a small percentage of fibres used.	impacts from fibre production.		(X)	Uses ZDHC MRSL		mentioned using Lenzing Tencel.	in some capacity and is working to map its viscose supply chain.	beyond tier 1, but this does not cover raw material producers.	54%
John Lewis	$\langle \rangle$	$\langle \rangle$	Less than 10% of raw materials used by		\times	(X)	(X)		(*)	said the brand is in discussion with Lenzing.	Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	24%
Levi's	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	the brand are other than cotton, and a fraction of that percentage is viscose and lyocell.	Has a wood-based fibre sourcing policy that covers viscose, but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.		\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	× ×	x x	Provides a list of factories on its website beyond tier 1, but this does not cover raw material producers.	47%
MANGO	\bigcirc	\otimes	In 2017, Mango communicated that around 20% of its garments contain viscose or viscose blended with other fibres.	By 2020 it aims to increase the percentage of Tencel in its lines and collections. Has also signed a partner agreement with Lenzing in order to continue to work towards supporting sustainable practices, fibres and processes throughout the textile industry.		\otimes	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	\otimes		Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website (but planning to publish tiers 1-3 by 2019).	18%
look	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	9%	Has a viscose sourcing policy but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.		\times	\bigcirc		x x	(but did say it is actively working to map its viscose supply chain.)	Lists tier 1 factories on its website, but this does not cover raw material producers.	29%
PRIMARK°	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	but claimed that viscose makes up a very small percentage of fibre used.	No specific policy on viscose, but is currently developing an environmental policy that will include: releases to water, waste generation, impacts on biodiversity. One aspect of its environmental strategy will focus on improved environmental performance of products and raw materials.	\otimes	\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	(x)	× ×	Provides list of tier 1 factories on its website, but this does not cover raw material producers.	36%
	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Less than 0.45 %	Has a forest-derived materials sourcing policy that covers viscose, but this does no cover impacts from fibre production.	t 🗸	\otimes	\bigcirc			× ×	Provides a list of tier 1 supplier and sub- contractor factories, but this does not cover raw material producers.	46%
zLabels • zalando		\bigcirc	(x)	Has a policy related to sourcing wood pulp for viscose and other man-made cellulosic fibres.	\bigcirc	\otimes	\otimes			Said it is in conversation with Lenzing and Birla, and is currently working on mapping its supply chain.	Provides number of factories/countries sourcing from in its annual report - but does not disclose specific factories.	27%
Arcadia	\otimes	\bigcirc	17%	Its Fashion Footprint report 2017 has no mention of a viscose policy.	\bigcirc	\otimes	\otimes			··· ×	Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	26%
NKE.	\bigcirc	\otimes	··· ×	No viscose specific policy. Has a Nike Materials Sustainability Index (MSI) but this is not available on its website. Nike uses the China Pollution Map Database developed by the Institute of Public & Environmental Affairs (IPE) to screen facilities in China for wastewater violations.		\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	\otimes		Publishes tier 1-2 factories on an interactive map – but does not disclose raw material suppliers.	36%
RALPH LAUREN	\otimes	⊘	Website states 80% of fabric used is cotton	Has a Cellulosic Fibre Sourcing Policy. Has a product sustainability working group which identifies sustainable solutions throughout the product lifecycle, from fibre generation to processing and from customer use to end of life.	\bigcirc	\otimes	⊘			×	Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	14%
J = UNI QLO	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	but doesn't specify the remaining 20%.	Has a sourcing policy on wood-based products and forest materials, but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.	\bigcirc	Identified by Greenpeace Detox as a member of	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory	·.·	··· ×	Provides a list of core manufacturing partners, but this does not cover raw material producers.	29%
Abercrombie & Fitch	\otimes	\times		Has a viscose sourcing policy but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.		ZDHC.	\times				Yes. Lenzing 45%, Adita Birla 29%, tanghishan sanyou xingda chemical fibre co 1%, Fulida groups 1% remaining 24%	14%
UNITED COLORS OF BENETTON.		\otimes		None. But has "dress safely programme" which guarantees that "through the entire supply chain, from raw materials to finished garments – our products are manufactured without the use of toxic chemicals or dangerous elements."		\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020			"awaiting assessment". Lists tier 1-3 suppliers.	35%
HUGO			Ŭ (x)	However, the technical manual associated with this policy does not mention viscose production.				signatory	onn.
B O S S	\bigcirc	(X)	2017 reply said the amount of viscose used was negligible, as the brand aims to minimize or if possible avoid using viscose.		\times	(v)	(v)				Information on numbers of suppliers but nothing else found on website.	38% Various Kering brands were
KERING	\times	\times		Has a viscose sourcing policy but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.		\bigcirc	\bigcirc				Does not disclose identity of suppliers on its website.	assessed, including Gucci (37%), Puma (56%), YSL (36%) and Bottega Veneta (36%)
1 Iululemon	\otimes	\otimes		Has a viscose sourcing policy but this does not cover impacts from fibre production.		\otimes	\bigcirc				Claims to publicly disclose information beyond first tier suppliers through KnowTheChain disclosure (although this is not on its website).	35%
PVH	\otimes	\otimes		Has a sustainable materials policy but no mention of viscose.	\otimes	\bigcirc	\bigcirc	Not a signatory, but has been singled out by Greenpeace as a poor performer with regard to chemical management.			Provides a list of factories on its website beyond tier 1, but this does not cover raw material producers.	38%
VICTORIA'S SECRET	\otimes	\otimes		Has a man-made cellulosic fibre sourcing policy. The brand says it is committed to working with suppliers to source man-made cellulosic fibres produced from FSC-certified forestry operations or, where unavailable, from certified forestry operations sources that are independently verified.	\otimes	\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory			Not found on website.	19%
AÉROPOSTALE	\bigotimes				\otimes	\otimes	\bigcirc				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	5%
Save money, Live better,	\otimes	\otimes			\otimes	\otimes	\otimes				Publishes names and addresses of tier one suppliers on website, but this does not cover raw material producers.	30%
boohoo		\times			\times	\otimes	\otimes				Does not disclose identity of suppliers on its website.	Not included
BURBERRY	\overline{x}	\otimes			\otimes	\bigcirc	Uses ZDHC MRSL plus additions.	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory			Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	33%
T.	⊘	\bigcirc	Said small proportion,	Doesn't disclose any environmental/sustainability policies online.	\times	\otimes	\otimes			···	Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	3%
COACH	×	\times	depending on the fabric used.		\times	\otimes	\bigcirc				Doesn't disclose identity of any suppliers. CSR report does mention the number of	21%
tapestry	×	\otimes			\otimes	\otimes					Does not disclose identity	15%
FOREVER 21		\bigcirc					(×)		hul ²		of any suppliers on its website. Does not disclose identity
FOREVER 21	×		but a search of the website shows 450 products containing viscose.			(X)	\times		onno.		of any suppliers on its website.	6%
ACTIVE WEAR	×	(X)		Kering, which owns Gucci, has a cellulosic fibre sourcing policy. Gucci is	\times	\otimes	(v)		2000		Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	33%
GUCCI	×	\otimes		Rering, which owns Gucci, has a cellulosic fibre sourcing policy. Gucci is investigating the possibility of having FSC-certified viscose in Its products. No policy on viscose fibre manufacturing.		\bigcirc	\bigcirc				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	37%
HERMÉS PARIS	×	\times		No mention of any sustainability policies on website.	\times	\times	\otimes				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	26%
IKEA®		\times			\times	\times	\bigcirc				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	Not included
J.CREW	\otimes	\otimes			\otimes	\otimes	\otimes				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	13%
L, DL		\otimes		but has a waste water policy which applies to all companies in its supply chain.	\otimes	\otimes	\bigcirc	Greenpeace Detox 2020 signatory			No mention of viscose but says it uses Tencel, which is a Lenzing brand name for lyocell.	15%
MICHAEL KORS	\otimes	\otimes			\otimes	\otimes	\otimes				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	7%
MISSGUIDED PEACE, LOVE AND FASHION		\otimes		No mention of any sustainability policies on website.	\otimes	\otimes	\otimes				Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	Not included
MONSOON	\bigcirc	⊘	its 2017 letter said that viscose clothing and accessories represent a small	No environmental policy on website. 2017 reply mentioned a confidential environmental policy the brand asks its suppliers to adhere to.	\otimes	\otimes	\otimes		(x)		Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	9%
M MORRISONS	×	\times	proportion of its fabric use.	Has a wood-based products policy, but this only applies	\times	\otimes	\otimes		My		Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	Not included
PRADA	×	\otimes		Has a wood-based products policy, but this only applies to beauty and household goods.	\otimes	\otimes	\bigcirc		M		Does not disclose identity of any suppliers on its website.	15%
Sainsbury's	×	\times			\times	\times	\otimes				Does not disclose identity	7%
	× ×	\times		Under Armour has converted from rayon to modal where possible. In cases where		\otimes	\otimes		M		of any suppliers on its website. Lists "strategic" tier 1 suppliers and vendors, estimated to account for over	22%
UNDER ARMOUR			20-	rayon is still used the brand asks that suppliers use sustainably sourced fibre.					nMn	nMn	70% of the brand's business, but this does not not cover raw material producers. Does not disclose identity
URBAN OUTFITTERS	×)	(X)	nnin		(X)	\times	\times			onlo	of any suppliers on its website. Mentions that Lenzing supplies its Tencel,	6%
VERO MODA° BESTSELLER'		\times		but has "Green Attitude" products that use Tencel.	\times	\times					but doesn't mention viscose suppliers. Its website lists tier 1 suppliers.	20%

LEGEND

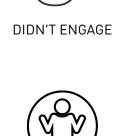

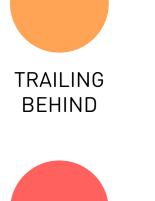

RED ZONE